Recognized for their leadership and vision, national and global economic impact, and civic participation, Maureen Kempston Darks, Hassan Khosrowshahi, Paul Desmarais, Jr., André Desmarais, and Paul Guy Desmarais (posthumous) are the 43rd Class of Companions of the Order of the Canadian Business Hall of Fame.

The Canadian Business Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and Dinner Celebration hosted on May 12th was among the first in-person events held this year. 600 business leaders, former Companions, including Calin Rovinescu representing the Class of 2021, joined community members and students at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre for the annual signature fundraising event in support of Junior Achievement (JA) Canada. Companions serve as role models to JA students.

Janice Fukakusa, CBHF Chancellor, brought sincere congratulations to the esteemed group, while presiding over the ceremonial pinning and signing the official book of honour. The inductees gave heartfelt speeches about their leadership journeys, thanking family and mentors, and imparting words of wisdom for the next generation of leaders.

The evening's proceedings, hosted by television business news anchor Catherine Murray, also featured greetings from Scott Hillier, CEO JA Canada, Jin Schofield, JA Company Program Student, Darryl White, CEO BMO Financial Group and Dawn de Lima, Chair JA Canada who recognized Companions of past years whose legacies live on through the CBHF.

Friends and colleagues donated gifts in honour of Companions sharing messages of congratulations.

Catherine Murray & Maureen Kempston Darks

"The greatest legacy we have is to serve as role models for the next generation, enabling them to achieve more than we could imagine. The Desmarais Family is an exceptional source of inspiration for all of us. To all the Inductees, thank you for your remarkable contribution to Canada."

-Monique F. Leroux and Jean-Guy Desjardins

André Desmarais & Paul Desmarais, Jr.

Hassan Khosrowshahi & Janice Fukakusa (Chancellor)

"Congratulations to these remarkable business leaders for a lifetime of achievement, and for their recognition as members of the CBHF 2022 Class of Companions. A huge shout out to Maureen Kempston Darks for blazing a trail for all women in business to follow, and doing so with courage, humility, and compassion."
